

Content

Foreword by Floriane Hohenberg 11
Foreword by Nina Ritz 12

HENNING BORGGRÄFE, AKIM JAH AND ELISABETH SCHWABAUER
Rebuilding Lives
Introduction 15

New Findings on the History of Child Survivors and DP Children

VERENA BUSER
Child Survivors and Displaced Children in the Aftermath Studies. An Overview 27

JULIA REUS
»Everywhere where human beings are, we can find our children«
On the Organization of the ITS Child Search Branch and its Predecessor 41

SUSANNE URBAN
»More children are to be interviewed«
Child Survivors' Narratives in the Child Search Branch Files 70

KAROLINA PANZ
»They did not want any more Jews there«
The Fate of Jewish Orphans in Podhale, 1945–1946 93

CHRISTIAN HÖSCHLER
International Families?
Community Living in the IRO Children's Village
Bad Aibling, 1948–1951 105

MARY FRASER KIRSH

»Shattered by mental and physical strain«

The Treatment and Assimilation of »Defective« Child Survivors 125

JOHANNES-DIETER STEINERT

Polish and Soviet Child Forced Labourers in National Socialist

Germany and German-Occupied Eastern Europe, 1939–1945 142

OLGA GNYDIUK

»The advantages of repatriation do not offset the trauma of a removal«

IRO Welfare Workers and the Problem of Ukrainian

Unaccompanied Children in German Foster Families 160

KELSEY NORRIS

Soviet Displaced Persons and the Politics of Family Reunification
in the USSR, 1939–1991

Research Agenda and Perspectives 179

ILDIKÓ BARNA

Interdisciplinary Analysis of Hungarian Jewish Displaced Persons and Children Using the ITS Digital Archive 194

Educational Approaches towards the History of Displaced Persons

STEFFEN JOST AND NINA RABUZA

More than a Marginal Note

Displaced Persons as a Topic of History Education

at the Max Mannheimer Study Center 211

NICOLA SCHLICHTING

Life after the Liberation

Displaced Persons in Bergen-Belsen, 1945–1950

as a Topic for Educational Work 224

KATHARINA ERBE
 A Closer Look
 Teaching Jewish Experiences of Displacement
 through Photography 234

LINDA G. LEVI
 JDC Archives Online Educational Resources
 about Displaced Persons and Child Survivors 248

Rebuilding Lives – Reflections and Perspectives

BOAZ COHEN
 Research on Child Holocaust Survivors and Displaced Persons
 Goals and Challenges 265

ATINA GROSSMANN
 Jewish Survivors
 Notes on Entangled Stories and Lost Memories 276

Contributors 283